material and report. Unfortunately the 2nd Directorate[i] has not answered these letters from VALERIAN[ii] and our arrangements are being held up. In particular in [his][a] letter of 19th May [he][b] wrote about communications [SVYAZ'][c] with VANOGS[iii] and SPADE[iv] who, in 1944, on instructions from the "National Committee", took a radio agent network[RADIO:CENTURA][d] across to LATVIA in their motor boats and knew the people who deal with such matters here. In [his][a] letters of 19th May and 9th June [he][b] wrote [about this][e] and at the same time sent a plan for the re-establishment of communications [SVYAZ'] with our [BX] agent, who is at present[f] Editor-in-chief of the Estonian national paper "TEATAJA[TRAPAKa]"[v]

Notes: [a] Inserted by the translator on the assumption that this is a letter from VALERIAN.

DISTRIBUTION:

- Notes: (Cont'd)
- [b] Inserted by the translator on the assumption that VALERIAN is the subject of the verb "wrote". The code group for "wrote" stands for all the persons of the past tense of "to write".
  - [c] Or "contact/liaison".
  - [d] This term is not known. AGENTURA is the collective noun for a number of agents. A RADIOAGENTURA may be a group of agents equipped with radio.
  - [e] Inserted by the translator.
  - [f] The following alternative version is possible: ".... agents, the present editor-in-chief of the Estonian nationalist paper "TEATAJA".....".
  - [g] Or "works".
  - [h] Literally "in contact".

- Comments:
- [i] 2nd Directorate: Of the MGB. Generally responsible for all defensive counter-intelligence activities with the borders of the Soviet Union.
  - [ii] VALERIAN: Vasilij Pederovich RAZIN, 1st Secretary at the Soviet Legation in STOCKHOLM.
  - [iii] VANOGS: Unidentified. A Latvian surname; probably a misspelling of VANAGS. This is a common surname and means "eagle".
  - [iv] SPADE: Unidentified. All Latvian surnames end in -S. This cannot, therefore, be a Latvian surname. It is just possible that it is a misspelling of the Latvian word SPAGE which means "dragrally" (Latin "G" and Cyrillic "D" are the same in cursive script.) If so, VANAGS and SPAGE may be cover-names.
  - [v] TEATAJA: The Estonian Emigre paper ESTI TEATAJA, published in SWEDEN.
  - [vi] APRAKSHIN: Pavel Aleksandrovich KIRSANOV, 3rd and later 2nd Secretary at the Soviet Legation in STOCKHOLM.
